Rewrite the sentence below, adding a fronted adverbial.

The intelligent invertebrate cloaked itself with broken shells.

Example: As the predator approached, the intelligent invertebrate cloaked itself with broken shells.

Did You Know?

For the first time, an octopus has been filmed hiding her identity by attaching shells to her soft body. Confused by her clever shell-suit disguise, a prowling shark leaves the ocean arena without its dinner. Octopuses are well known for their exceptional intelligence and problem-solving skills.
