Write a sentence about a mother mountain lion and her kittens, which includes a possessive apostrophe.

Example: Inside the den, the kittens curled up against their mother's warm fur.

Did You Know?

Mountain lion kittens are occasionally removed from their dens by scientists so that they can be fitted with kitten-sized tracking devices. These high-tech collars, carefully designed to be lightweight and non-intrusive, allow researchers to monitor the kittens' movements, health and survival rates as they grow up in their mountain habitat.
